Sports News

Attention Seniors! At this time, you should be planning for completing your FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). The Guidance Office will be offering a virtual FAFSA Workshop through SLU on October 27th at 6 pm. Check your email and the Guidance Facebook Page for additional info and the zoom link!-10/27

Hey Warriors it's Homecoming week! Let's start the week off right with our annual Homecoming Parade. The Parade begins at the Post Office on Madison Ave, turns at Mr. Twist, travels along the park, and into the teacher parking lot. After the parade, let's all go to the annual Powderpuff game! Get your Powderpuff ticket in room 246 or 212!-10/19

Tomorrow is Wednesday my dudes! Dress up as your favorite meme for day 3 of Homecoming week. – 10/19

The guidance office has a limited number of study guides available to students who are signed up for the PSAT later this month. Please see Mr. Hayes for your free copy as soon as possible.-10/20

Homecoming Play tickets are now for sale. Visit Mr. Cowley in the PAC or room 125 to get them. Tickets are $5 and are going fast. The show is Wednesday and Thursday at 7pm. Coronation will follow after the show both nights. Come see if you can figure out who the killer is yourself."-10/21

Renaissance would like to celebrate this week's Ren Top Ten Students: Ava Hoppe, Braden Kelly, Brayden Harris, Gracie Roberts, and Ivan Gaston. Each of these students have gone above and beyond to be positive influencers at GCHS. -10/20

“Congratulations to the Varsity Girls Volleyball team on their Senior Night win over Madison High School last night! The Varsity girls played a great game with an 11 point serving streak by Jenna Holik, multiple kills by Emily Sykes, and many assists by Ella Stepanek. Great game ladies!”---
